

WWA Code of Conduct

Under the terms and conditions of this Code of Conduct it shall be the responsibility of all who participate in Wrestling Western Australia and its Affiliates to comply with this Code of Conduct. These requirements apply to all levels of wrestling in Club, State, National and International events.

1. Be aware of, and abide by the standards, rules, regulations and policies of WWA, member associations and affiliated clubs. Accept the final decision of the WWA, making all appeals through formal processes.
2. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of fellow wrestlers, coaches, officials and spectators. Treat everyone fairly within the context of the sport, regardless of gender, place of origin, race, color, sexual orientation, religion, political belief, economic status, marital status, age or any other conditions. There will be zero tolerance for discrimination.
3. Be a positive role model and ensure your words and actions exemplify high standards of behaviour in practice, competition and/or social events to anyone observing. Set high standards of behaviour for your fellow team mates, competitors, spectators and officials.
4. Conduct yourself in a courteous manner relating to language, temper and punctuality. Be accountable, demonstrate integrity, and accept responsibility for your actions.
5. Respect the talent, potential and development of fellow wrestlers and competitors. We are all students of the art of wrestling, separated only by our knowledge of individual skills, and our level of focus and determination.
